also lol @ you calling 18+ fans bc you want sh*ithers to answer and you're automatically belittling any minors' opinions even though this VERY MUCH has to deal with them and the portrayal of minors in media. minors who tend to be ANTIS. cute.

what kind of fucked up university would accepted a dissertation about adults defending incest,,, yikes lol you TEACH SOMEWHERE? I WORRY FOR YOUR STUDENTS. But nice to know I know what university to contact if that shit gets greenlighted.

Again: this survey is absolutely biased and unethical.

i'm losing my mind apparently this isn't a student. the person who created the survey is a teacher from bowling green state university how can u out urself to ur own students as pro ped*ph*lia and inc*st like that

The fact that this "ethics" survey was approved and is being conducted is extremely troubling. Antis are, for the most part, MINORS. Minors who have expressed criticism and disgust at an unhealthy and problematic ship between two gay men that is very often fetishized by adult women. And while there has been SOME harassment on the side of antis, there has also been equal harassment from Shaladins. And you say that i'm gonna shit anna i don't think i could sit through that whole presentation if i was an ohio state professor i think i would just say 'jesus fuck' and write a fat zero every time one of you does some stupid shit like this and receive ANY sort of backlash it becomes 'death threats' bc that's the quickest way to earn pity and make everyone else seem like rabid aggressors can you come up with something else
